

WMA Certified Mediator Continuing Mediator Education (CME) Credit Application

In order to maintain your status as a WMA Certified Mediator, you must obtain at least 20 hours of continuing education every two years. According to WMA's records, it has been at least two years since you were either initially WMA certified or submitted CME documentation. If you would like to maintain your WMA certified status, please complete this renewal form and enclose it along with your $60 payment to WMA.

If you would like to add a category of practice to your certification, please specify the category and attach documentation for at least 60 hours of experience or study related to the field of practice. There is no extra charge to add a category at the time of renewal.

Please describe each of your continuing mediation educational activities (up to 20 total hours) and the number of hours spent in the activity. Please refer to the Guidelines For WMA Continuing Mediation Education (CME) Credits (attached).

Years you were most recently certified by WMA (200_-200_) Note: Continuing education must have occurred during this two year certification period.
